

Pawsey photos Solar Conference Sac Peak

Fig 1 Sacramento Peak conference (Solar Corona) 28 to 30 August 1961. Vainu Bappu from the Kavalur Observatory in India (co-discoverer of the Wilson-Bappu effect in stellar spectra). Pawsey camera, Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection.

Fig 2. At the Sac Peak conference, left Ludwig Biermann and right Tommy Gold. Pawsey camera. Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection

Fig3. At the Sac Peak conference, left Sydney Chapman and right Arthur Covington. Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection

Fig 4. Sunset at White Sands, an excursion from the Sac Peak conference (White Sands National Monument is about 55 km to the west of Cloud Croft – Sac Peak). Evening scene as the participants enjoy the famous sunsets at White Sands. Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection

Fig 5 Conference attendees enjoying the sand. Left to right sitting or lying in the sand: Einar A. Tandberg-Hanssen (1921-2012, Norwegian-American solar physicist. Had worked with Martin Ryle and O'Brien on solar radio emission at Cambridge in the mid-1950s, later Director of the Marshall Space Flight Center from 1987 to 1993), unknown man (with back to camera), J. F. Denisse, Monique Peak (prominent French solar physicist), and unknown woman. Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection

Fig 6. Conference attendees standing: left to right, unknown, Paul Wild, Mrs. Zirin, John Firor, John ("Jack") Evans , 1909-1999, Director of the Sac Peak Observatory, host of the event) and man standing in the background to the right with camera is Marshall Cohen (who has helped with the figure captions). Credit: Joe and Lenore Pawsey Family Collection